

Notice of 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and Proxy Statement

NAM TAI ELECTRONICS, INC.

Chairman's Message

May 10, 2011

Dear Shareholders:

2010 Reviewed

For the year ended December 31, 2010, Nam Tai recorded sales revenue of $534.4 million, growing 31% from sales revenue of $408.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2009. Gross profit for 2010 was $51.3 million, an increase of 27%, as compared to gross profit of $40.3 million in 2009, with gross profit margin of 9.6% for 2010 slightly less than 9.9% in 2009. The Company completed the year 2010 with a net profit of $15.0 million, up $13.3 million from a net profit of $1.7 million for the year 2009.

Overall, Nam Tai's performance in 2010 was much improved from 2009 and would have been better but for the burden of start-up expenses incurred at the Company's FPCB production facility in Wuxi, which during 2010 generated

- negligible revenue of $3.7 million;
- a negative gross profit margin (i.e., a gross loss) of $11.0 million;
- an operating loss of $15.4 million; and
- a net loss of $11.6 million.

The primary component of the 2010 loss from the Wuxi production facility consisted of depreciation expense of $8.7 million.

Outlook for 2011

The demand for LCD modules and telecommunication subassemblies increased considerably during 2009 and 2010, and we expect that momentum to continue into 2011.

Although sales revenue generated from our FPCB manufacturing and assembly facilities in Wuxi did not contribute materially to Nam

Tai's total revenue in 2010, the Company believes that, through the incorporation of advanced technology and equipment for production of FPCBs usable for many diverse electronic products and components, and benefitted by management and marketing personnel experienced in FPCB production and sales, including an experienced executive who joined us in September 2010 as President of our Wuxi manufacturing operations, Nam Tai's FPCB facilities in Wuxi will show momentum in 2011 and eventually become one of the Company's key growth drivers.

In 2011, the Company plans to continue to focus its business on manufacturing high value and higher margin LCD modules geared toward applications in market segments that management perceives to be strong, such as telecommunications and automotive. In order to meet the demand from customers, the Company will consider significant expansion of production capacity for LCD modules and assemblies for smart phone and tablet applications in upcoming years.

We expect to maintain improvements in operations from our Shenzhen and Wuxi facilities and sales that we achieved in 2010. However, management's initial assessment of Nam Tai's performance during 2011 has been adjusted as a consequence of the anticipated impact on the Company's business from the Tôhoku earthquake and tsunami, which occurred on March 11, 2011 off the East coast of Japan. As we previously announced, we expect that our financial results in 2011 will not exceed those we reported for 2010 and anticipate that our overall results will be break even assuming the situation in Japan stabilizes.

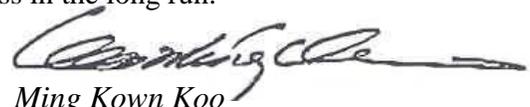

Our current expectations regarding our 2011 financial results could change adversely and materially if the situation in Japan remains uncertain or exacerbates; disrupts our supply chain for critical parts and components we need to manufacture our customers' products, which may become more expensive, in short supply or unavailable; or triggers a recurrence of a recession in the electronics industry similar to the one Nam Tai and the industry experienced from 2007 to 2009.

Additional key factors that may adversely impact our performance, which are specific to conducting business in the PRC, include:

- Appreciation of the exchange rate between the Chinese renminbi against other world currencies, especially the U.S. dollar, which, according to the historical currency converter available at <http://forex-history.net>, increased 3.3%, from RMB 6.827 at December 31, 2009 to RMB 6.602 at December 31, 2010;
- Increasing inflation in China, which rose 4.9% in January 2011 year-on-year and, according to some projections, may exceed 5% in 2011;
- Increasing employee salaries, which have increased 100% since March 2010 from inflation and labor shortages in China (which has included an increase of 20% to 30% during the first quarter of 2011); and
- Increasing income taxes in the PRC, where tax rates under the PRC's 2007 Enterprise Income Tax Law have risen from 20% in 2009 to 22% in 2010 and are expected to rise to 24% in 2011 and 25% in 2012, and are aggravated by a number of other local PRC taxes.

Nevertheless, we have confidence that sales will eventually pick up and if, as we anticipate, operations at our Wuxi facilities reach the break-even point in 2012, we expect that the improved contribution to our sales revenue and gross margins will grow our business in the long run.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS RELATING TO THE ANNUAL MEETING

Why did I receive these materials?

Our shareholders as of the close of business on April 28, 2011, which we refer to as the “Record Date,” are entitled to vote at our Annual Meeting of shareholders, which will be held on June 10, 2011. As a shareholder, you are invited to attend the annual meeting and are requested to vote on the items of business described in this proxy statement. We distribute these proxy materials to all of our shareholders of record on the Record Date.

This proxy statement provides notice of the annual meeting of shareholders, describes the proposals presented for shareholder action and includes information about the proposals, information concerning our management, corporate governance and principal shareholders and other information that we desire to disclose to shareholders. The accompanying proxy card enables shareholders to vote on the matters without having to attend the annual meeting in person.

What is a proxy?

A proxy is your legal designation of another person (the “proxy”) to vote on your behalf. By completing and returning the enclosed proxy card, you are giving the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company and/or the Chief Executive Officer of the Company the authority to vote your shares in the manner you indicate on your proxy card.

Why did I receive more than one proxy card?

You will receive multiple proxy cards if you hold your shares in different ways (e.g., joint tenancy, trusts, and custodial accounts) or in multiple accounts. If your shares are held by a broker, bank, trustee or other nominee (i.e., in “street name”), you will receive your proxy card or other voting information from your broker, bank, trustee or other nominee, and you should return your proxy card or cards to your broker, bank, trustee or other nominee. You should vote on and sign each proxy card you receive.

Who is entitled to vote at the Meeting?

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to receive notice of and to participate in the annual meeting. If you were a shareholder of record on the Record Date, you will be entitled to vote all of the shares that you held on that date at the Meeting, or any postponements or adjournments of the Meeting.

How many votes do I have?

You will be entitled to one vote for each outstanding share of our common stock you own as of the Record Date. As of the Record Date, there were 44,803,735 shares of our common stock outstanding and eligible to vote.

What is the difference between a “stockholder of record” and a “street name” holder?

These terms describe how your shares are held. If your shares are registered directly in your name with Registrar and Transfer Company, or RTC, the Company’s transfer agent, you are a “stockholder of record.” If your shares are held in the name of a brokerage, bank, trust or other nominee as a custodian, you are a “street name” holder.

How many shares must be present or represented to conduct business at the Meeting?

The presence at the Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the aggregate voting power of the Company’s common shares outstanding on the Record Date will constitute a quorum, permitting the conduct of business at the Meeting. Based on the number of shares of our common stock outstanding on the Record Date, the presence of the holders of our common stock representing at least 22,401,868 votes will be required to establish a quorum.

Proxies received but marked as abstentions, votes withheld and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of votes considered present at the Meeting.

How can I vote my shares in person at the Meeting?

Shares held in your name as the shareholder of record may be voted by you in person at the Meeting. Shares held by you beneficially in “street name” through a broker, bank or other nominee may be voted by you in person at the Meeting only if you obtain a legal proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee that holds your shares giving you the right to vote the shares.

Who can attend the annual meeting?

All shareholders of record as of the close of business on April 28, 2011, can attend the meeting. However, seating is limited and will be on a first arrival basis.

To attend the annual meeting, please follow these instructions:

- If you are a shareholder of record, bring proof of ownership of Nam Tai shares and a form of identification; or
- If a broker or other nominee holds your shares, bring proof of ownership of Nam Tai shares through such broker or nominee and a form of identification.

Shareholders who plan to attend the Meeting should check in at the reception desk located in or immediately outside the Library of the Mandarin Oriental Hotel, 222 Sansome Street, San Francisco, CA, which is the venue for the meeting.

How can I vote my shares without attending the Meeting?

Whether you hold shares directly as the shareholder of record or beneficially in “street name,” you may direct how your shares are voted without attending the Meeting. If you are a shareholder of record (that is, if your shares are registered directly in your name with RTC), you must complete and properly sign and date the accompanying proxy card and return it. A pre-addressed envelope is included for your use and is postage-paid if mailed in the United States. If you are a shareholder of record and attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person.

If you hold shares beneficially in “street name,” you may vote by submitting voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee.

Can I vote by telephone or electronically?

If you are a shareholder of record, you may vote by telephone, or electronically through the Internet, by following the instructions included with your proxy card. If your shares are held in “street name,” please check your proxy card or contact your broker, bank or other nominee to determine whether you will be able to vote by telephone or electronically and the deadline for such voting.

Can I change my vote after I return my proxy card?

Yes. If you are a shareholder of record, you may revoke or change your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised by delivering to our Secretary at the address shown at the beginning of this proxy statement a notice of revocation, or by signing a proxy card bearing a later date or by attending the Meeting and voting in person.

For shares you hold beneficially in “street name,” you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee or, if you have obtained a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee giving you the right to vote your shares, by attending the Meeting and voting in person. In either case, the powers of the proxy holders will be suspended if you attend the Meeting in person and so request, although attendance at the Meeting will not by itself revoke a previously granted proxy.

What are the proposals to be considered by shareholders?

The Board of Directors is submitting two proposals for shareholder action at the 2011 annual meeting: Proposal 1 — the election of five (5) nominees for directors of the Company, each to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders, and Proposal 2 — the ratification of the appointment of Moore Stephens as independent registered public accounting firm of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2011.

What vote is required to approve each item?

Election of Directors. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting is required for the election of directors (Proposal 1). “Plurality” means that the individuals who receive the highest number of votes are elected as directors, up to the number of directors to be chosen at the meeting. A properly executed proxy marked “withhold authority” with respect to the election of one or more directors will not be voted with respect to the director or directors indicated, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

Other Item. For the proposal to ratify the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm for our year ending December 31, 2011 (Proposal 2) the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the item will be required for approval. A properly executed proxy marked “abstain” with respect to Proposal 2 will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote.

What are the Board of Directors’ recommendations?

Unless you give other instructions on your proxy card, the person named as proxy holder on the proxy card will vote in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the election of directors named; and FOR the ratification of the selection of Moore Stephens as independent public accountants of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2011.

Will shareholders be asked to vote on any other matters?

To the knowledge of the Company and its management, shareholders will vote only on the matters described in this proxy statement. However, if any other matters properly come before the Meeting, the persons named as proxies for shareholders will vote on those matters in the manner they consider appropriate.

Who counts the votes?

Votes will be counted and certified by the Inspectors of Election, who are employees of RTC. If you are a shareholder of record, your signed proxy card is returned directly to RTC for tabulation. If you hold your shares in “street name” through a broker, bank or other nominee, your broker, bank or other nominee will return one proxy card to RTC on behalf of its clients.

How are votes counted?

In the election of directors, you may vote “FOR” all or some of the nominees or your vote may be “WITHHELD” with respect to one or more of the nominees. You may not cumulate your votes for the election of directors.

For Proposal 2, you may vote “FOR,” “AGAINST” or “ABSTAIN.” If you elect to “ABSTAIN,” the abstention has the same effect as a vote “AGAINST.”

If you hold your shares in “street name” through a broker, bank or other nominee rather than directly in your own name, then your broker, bank or other nominee is considered the shareholder of record, and you are considered the beneficial owner of your shares. We have supplied copies of our proxy statement to the broker, bank or other nominee holding your shares of record, and they have the responsibility to send it to you. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares at the Meeting. The broker, bank or other nominee that is the shareholder of record for your shares is obligated to provide you with a voting instruction card for you to use for this purpose.

If you hold your shares in a brokerage account but you fail to return your voting instruction card to your broker, your shares may constitute “broker non-votes.” Generally, broker non-votes occur on a matter when a broker is not permitted to vote on that matter without instructions from the beneficial owner and instructions are not given. In tabulating the voting results for the proposals, shares that constitute broker non-votes are not considered present and entitled to vote on that proposal, but are counted for purposes of establishing a quorum. If a quorum is present at the Meeting, the persons receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected to serve as directors. As a result, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the voting on the election of directors (Proposal 1). The ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm (Proposal 2) requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. A broker non-vote is treated as not being entitled to vote on the matter and, therefore, is not counted for purposes of determining whether the proposal has been approved. If you are a beneficial owner and your broker, bank or other nominee holds your shares in its name, it is not permitted for the broker, bank or other nominees to vote your shares on the election of directors (Proposal 1) or the ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm (Proposal 2).

What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares in more than one brokerage account, you may receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. If you are a shareholder of record and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive.

- who is not nor has been within the last 3 years immediately prior to the date of his appointment as the INED an employee of the Company, provided, however, employment as an interim Chairman of the Board or Chief Executive Officer or other executive officer of the Company shall not disqualify a director from being considered independent following that employment;

- who, or whose immediate family member*, have not received greater than US$120,000 in direct compensation from the Company, other than directors' and committees' fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continuous service), during any twelve-month period within the last 3 years immediately prior to the date of his appointment as the INED;

Compensation of Directors and Senior Management

Compensation on an Aggregate Basis

The aggregate compensation, including benefits in kind granted, during the year ended December 31, 2010 that we or any of our subsidiaries paid to all directors and senior management as a group for their services in all capacities to the Company or any subsidiary was approximately $2.7 million. That total includes an aggregate of $94,800 in stock compensation expense for options granted to the Company's non-employee directors.

We pay our directors $4,000 per month for services as a director, $1,000 per meeting attended in person and $700 per meeting attended by telephone. In addition, we reimburse our directors for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with their services as a director and member of a board committee.

During the year ended December 31, 2010, we granted to our directors from our stock option plans options to purchase an aggregate of 60,000 of our common shares at an exercise price of $4.45 per share. That exercise price of the shares covered by the options granted during 2010 was equal to their fair market value of our shares on the date of grant when measured against the closing price of $4.45 of our shares on June 3, 2010 (the date of the grant) as reported on the NYSE. The options granted during 2010 expire on the third anniversary of their grant date in 2013.

During 2010, members of our senior management were eligible for annual cash bonuses based on their performance and that of the subsidiaries in which they are assigned for the relevant period. Senior management is entitled to share up to 15% of the operating income from the subsidiary in which they are employed during the year. Our senior management in charge of our subsidiaries recommends the participating staff members from the corresponding subsidiary and the amount, if any, to be allocated from such subsidiary's profit pool to an eligible employee. In addition to cash incentives, members of our senior management are eligible to receive stock options from our Stock Option Plans. For 2010, the Chief Executive Officer is entitled to 20% of the incentive pools and the balance is to be shared by other operational senior management of the Company per above.

According to the applicable laws and regulations in China set by the local government of Shenzhen, China, prior to July 2006, we are required to contribute 8% to 9% of the stipulated salary to our staff located there to retirement benefit schemes to fund retirement benefits for our employees. With effect from July 2006, the applicable percentages were adjusted from 10% to 11%. For our subsidiary in Wuxi, the applicable percentage was 20%. Our principal obligation with respect to these retirement benefit schemes is to make the required contributions under the scheme. No forfeited contributions may be used by us to reduce the existing level of contributions.

Since December 2000, we have enrolled all of our eligible employees located in Hong Kong into the Mandatory Provident Fund, or MPF, scheme, a formal system of retirement protection that is mandated by the government of Hong Kong and provides the framework for the establishment of a system of privately managed, employment-related MPF schemes to accrue financial benefits for members of the Hong Kong workforce when they retire. Since first establishing a subsidiary in Macao in 2003, we have enrolled all of our eligible employees in Macao into Macao's retirement benefit scheme, or RBS. Both the MPF and RBS are available to all employees aged 18 to 64 and with at least 60 days of service under the employment of Nam Tai in Hong Kong and Macao. Contributions are made by us at 5% based on the staff's relevant income. The maximum relevant income for contribution purpose per employee is $3,000 per month. Staff members are entitled to 100% of the Company's contributions, together with accrued returns, irrespective of their length of service with us, but the benefits are required by law to be preserved until the retirement age of 65 for employees in Hong Kong while the benefit can be withdrawn by the employees in Macao at the end of employment contracts.

The cost of our contributions to the staff retirement plans in Hong Kong, Macao and China amounted to approximately $1,814,000, $1,480,000 and $1,715,000 for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, respectively.

For information concerning options held by our executive officers named in the above table at the Record Date, please see the table and footnotes under "Shares and Options Ownership of Directors, Senior Management and Principal Shareholders" on page 15 of this proxy statement.

Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions

In connection with the appointment of Mr. Koo as Nam Tai's Chief Financial Officer in March 2009, Nam Tai and Mr. Koo agreed to the following compensation arrangements: (1) a salary of $1.00 per month; (2) employment benefits comparable to those provided to other members of senior management, including insurance coverage, annual physical examination, golf club membership fees, and payment of rental expenses of his apartment in Hong Kong up to $15,000 per month, plus all miscellaneous fees; and (3) compensation in the amount of $3.0 million after completion of three years' service with Nam Tai as Chief Financial Officer.

The compensation payable to Mr. Koo for three-years' service was not payable if Nam Tai replaced Mr. Koo with a suitable candidate within such three-year period, i.e., before February 29, 2012. In October 2010, Nam Tai appointed Joseph Li as Chief Financial Officer. In November 2010, as a consequence of his wife's health, Mr. Li resigned as Nam Tai's Chief Financial Officer and Mr. Koo again resumed in that position. However, despite his short tenure, Mr. Li's appointment as Nam Tai's Chief Financial Officer within the three-year period terminated the Company's obligation to Mr. Koo at the end of three years' service. Accordingly, the approximately $1.6 million cumulatively accrued since March 2009 on the terminated obligation payable by the Company to Mr. Koo at the end of three years were added to the Company's additional paid-in capital on Nam Tai's balance sheet at December 31, 2010 in accordance with the guidance under SAB Topics 1B.1 and 5T, FASB ASC 718-10-15-4.

In view of Mr. Li's resignation, Mr. Koo resumed as Nam Tai's Chief Financial Officer and he and Nam Tai entered into an employment agreement effective October 1, 2010 regarding Mr. Koo's service as Nam Tai's CFO. Under this employment agreement, Mr. Koo's salary remains $12 per annum ($1.00 per month), Mr. Koo is entitled to receive perquisites consisting of (a) the same benefits as other members of the senior management enjoy, (b) reimbursement for any reasonable miscellaneous expenses, i.e. entertainment expenses, and (c) reimbursement for the actual amount that Mr. Koo pays for the rental charges of his residential apartment in the amount of approximately $15,000 monthly, and all monthly utilities charges, such as for water, electricity, telephone, etc. Under the employment agreement, in the event:

- Nam Tai terminates Mr. Koo for any reason other than for his commission of a criminal act, Nam Tai has agreed to pay Mr. Koo an amount which is equal to 36 months of his basic monthly salary, all bonuses and allowances and so on that he is entitled at the time of termination; and
- Mr. Koo wishes to terminate his employment with Nam Tai, except in cases of illness or other health conditions that prevent him from working, he must provide Nam Tai with one year's prior written Notice.

Effective at the same time as his above-described employment agreement with Nam Tai, Mr. Koo and Nam Tai's subsidiary, NTEEP, entered into an employment agreement for Mr. Koo's services as NTEEP's President (which are in addition to his duties as Nam Tai's Chief Financial Officer). Under his employment agreement with NTEEP, Mr. Koo's is to receive (a) an annual salary of approximately $850,000, (b) subject to the final decision of NTEEP, an annual bonus of 1.5 months of his monthly salary of approximately $106,000, provided that Mr. Koo is an employee of the Company in February of the following financial year, and (c) perquisites consisting of (i) the same benefits as other members of the senior management of NTEEP enjoy and (ii) reimbursement for any reasonable miscellaneous expenses, i.e. entertainment expenses. Under his employment agreement with NTEEP, the provisions in the event of termination of employment with NTEEP are identical to the provisions described above in the event of termination of employment with Nam Tai.

The Board of Directors further directed that the Company submit the selection of independent registered public accounting firm for ratification by shareholders at the Meeting.

Moore Stephens has served as our independent registered public accounting firm since our year ended December 31, 2009. Moore Stephens' audit reports on our audited consolidated financial statements at and for the year ended December 31, 2010 and on the effectiveness of our internal control

If the appointment of Moore Stephens is not ratified, the Audit Committee will evaluate the basis for the shareholders' vote when determining whether to continue the firm's engagement, but may ultimately determine to continue the engagement or engage another audit firm without re-submitting the matter to shareholders. Even if the appointment is ratified, the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may act to engage a different independent auditing firm at any time during the year if the Audit Committee determines that such a change would be in the Company's and its shareholders' best interests.

- (1) Audit Fees consist of fees billed for the annual audit of our consolidated financial statements and the statutory financial statements of our subsidiaries. They also include fees billed for other audit services, which are those services that only the independent registered public accounting firm reasonably can provide, and include the provision of attestation services relating to the review of documents filed with the SEC.
- (2) Audit-related Fees consist of fees billed for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of our financial statements.
- (3) Tax Fees include fees billed for tax compliance services, including the preparation of original and amended tax returns.

Audit Committee Pre-approval Policies and Procedures

The Audit Committee of our Board of Directors is responsible for, among other matters, the oversight of the independent registered public accounting firm subject to the relevant regulations of the SEC and NYSE. The Audit Committee has adopted a policy, or the Policy, regarding pre-approval of audit and permissible non-audit services provided by our independent registered public accounting firm.

Under the Policy, the Chairman of the Audit Committee is delegated with the authority to grant pre-approvals in respect of all auditing services including non-audit service, but excluding those services stipulated in Section 201 “Service Outsider the Scope of Practice of Auditors”. Moreover, if the Audit Committee approves an audit service within the scope of the engagement of the audit service, such audit service shall be deemed to have been pre-approved. The decisions of the Chairman of the Audit Committee made under delegated authority to pre-approve an activity shall be presented to the Audit Committee at each of its scheduled meetings.

Requests or applications to provide services that require specific approval by the Audit Committee are submitted to the Audit Committee by both the independent registered public accounting firm and the Chief Financial Officer.

During 2009 and 2010, approximately 98.6% and 100%, respectively, of the total audit-related fees and tax fees were approved by the Audit Committee pursuant to the pre-approval requirement provided by paragraph (c)(7)(i)(C) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X.
